I do not think this city has a chance to get into the National League. Baltimore's location must be taken into consideration in the property of the franchise considerable talk going about the country aome time sgo that Baltimore eventually would secure the St. Louis franchise, but you can tell local fans that they need not entertain any hopes for that franchise. That would place five teams in the East. But I can say that if there are any changes to be made, Baltimore will be the first city considered."

When asked if any changes were being considered at the present time, Garry only smiled and again began talking about the U-boat. He is German.

Officers of the Washington baseball club when seen last night and told of Garry Herrmann's statement expressed great surprise.

"We have not been drawing great crowds here this spring," one official said, but we are all perfectly satisfied and not kicking. The idea of Baltimore supplanting Washington as a major league city is a joke, and Garry Herrmann must have been "kidding" somebody when he made the statement credited to him.

Griffmen and Tigers Play Two Games-Johnson-Boehling vs. Dauss-Dubuc.

JENNINGS FAVORS SOX

Detroit Pilot Says "Look Out for Chicago"-College Pitcher for the Nationals.

By WILLIAM PRET.

Owing to yesterday's rain the contesscheduled between the Griffmen an Detroit Tigers was postponed and double-header has been stranged for this afternoon, the first game starting at o'clock.

o'clock.

Boehling and Johnson will be the pitchers for the home club, while Manaser Jennings yesterday announced that he would pitch Dauss and Dubuc.

Boehling has been licked the last two times he started against the Tigers, while Detroit beat Johnson in the Michigan City, but Manager Griffith believes that with Ray Morgan and Joe Judge back into the game again and on the home patch, his club stands an excellent chance of grabbing off both games.

Hughey Jennings, the peopery manager

Hughey Jennings, the peppery manager of the Tigers, told the writer last night to watch the Chicago White Sox, when figuring out the winner of the American League championship this season. "I am not picking Chicago to win," said Jennings, "for I still believe that my club has a chance, but those White Sox will bear watching and if we can beat them to the pole I believe we will grab the pennant."

Jennings did not underestimate the White Sox.

Pitcher Sullivan, of Woodberry Porest College, a small institution located in Orange, Va., has agreed to try out with the Nationals and is expected to report here within the next few days.

According to reports, Sullivan is a big right-hander and a mighty fine propect. He has won most of his games this spring, and Griffith is of the opinion that he will develope into a major leaguer.

Sullivan

leaguer.

Sullivan was to have reported three weeks ago, but he was taken sick and wrote Manager Griffith that he would not show up until he could do himself justice, all of which was perfectly satisfactory to the Old Fox.

tory to the Old Fox.

While Hughey Jennings would not go on record as saying that the Boston Red Sox pitchers resorted to the use of the "bean ball," he came out unqualfiedly with the statement that the proposed rule to allow a batter hit intentionally by a pitcher to be entitled to two bases, be amended, and that the batter be allowed to continue his trip around the bags and score, also that if any other men were on the sacks at the time, that they, too, should be allowed to complete the circuit, and that the pitcher guilty of such a cowardly practice, should be suspended for one month.

practice, should be suspended for one month.

It will be remembered that last fall while in Boston, Ty Cobb was the victim of May's shoots, which were aimed at Cobb's head—that Cobb threw his bat at Mays and nothing came of it.

McBride, for pulling off a similar stunt here, was auspended by President Johnson for one week.

In speaking of the "bean ball," Hughey Jennings said last night, "I can truthfully say that during the time I was playing I was twice hit in the head, once by Amos Rusle and once by Meekin, but believe me, neither one of these pitchers tried to hit me.

"When I was in the game pitchera did not resort to such cowardly tactics," added the Tigers pilot.

Norman Beasley, the baseball writer.

added the Tigers pilot.

Norman Beasley, the baseball writer of the Detroit Journal, who is here with the Tigers, sent the following story to his newspaper last night:

Washington is becoming unduly excited. Rumors, "well authenticated and otherwise" have been flying thick and fast to the effect that Sam Crawford will, in a few days, put off the uniform of the Tiger and put on the livery of the Nationals.

The story found its inception in Detroit when the Nationals mude their first swing about the circuit.

One afternoon, Griffith was standing over near the Detroit bench.

"Hello, Clark," returned Hushle.

Griffith looked about the skyline for a few moments and then asked:

"What are you going to do with Sam Crawford?"

"Huh?"

Griffith repeated. And Jennings answered:

"Keep him."

Monday morning, after two or three of the local newspapers had printed interviews with Griffith and had run Sam's picture with the caption, "May Become a National." or something like that, we interviewed the two managers.

Jennings was a bit miffed.
